

SULZER REFUSES DEMAND

Will Not Give Up Execu- tive Chamber to Lieut. Governor Glynn

WOULD SUBMIT FACTS

In Controversy to Courts to Determine Who is the Governor of New York— Mrs. Sulzer is Improv- ing.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Formal demand for the surrender of the executive chamber and offices, the privy seal, and all books, papers, records, and documents relating to the executive department, was made upon Governor William Sulzer this afternoon by Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn.

Governor Sulzer refused to comply with the demand.

Included in Sulzer's refusal, according to D. Cady Herrick, chief of his counsel, is a proposal that Glynn and Sulzer prepare an agreed statement of the facts in the controversy and submit them to the courts to determine who is governor of New York.

Mr. Glynn's letter is addressed to Mr. Sulzer simply as "Hon. Wm. Sulzer, Albany, N. Y.," is signed by Mr. Glynn as acting Governor and reads as follows:

"In the performance of the duty which has developed upon me by Article 4, Section 6, of the Constitution, I officially demand that you deliver and surrender to me as acting Governor, during the period of your constitutional disability to act as governor, the use, possession and occupancy of the executive chamber and offices; and that you likewise deliver and surrender to me the executive privy seal of the State of New York; and also books, papers, records and documents in said chamber of offices or elsewhere, in your charge, or custody, relating to or pertaining to the executive department. The bearer hereof is authorized to receive your answer to this communication. Respectfully,
"MARTIN H. GLYNN."

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 15.—The second day of the dual administration in New York state dawned on a whirlpool of confusion in the capitol. The steel chain with a heavy padlock decorated the great seal; the privy seal lay under lock and key; the way to the executive chamber, Wm. Sulzer's citadel, was barred, and from two offices the rival claimants to the governor's chair continued to exercise their functions.

Control of the national guard, access to the great seal recognition by New York's secretary of state and by the governor of the neighboring state of New Jersey were prerogatives stripped from Governor Sulzer by Lieut. Governor Glynn, who claims to be the acting chief executive.

Possession of the privy seal whose imprint validates all documents coming before the governor on affairs wholly within the state and occupancy of the executive chambers remained with Sulzer. It was Glynn's move on the political chess board today. He planned a checkmate. Like a master of the game he gave no hint of his opponents of what his move would be.

Heart Trouble Caused Death of Miss Gillard Says Coroner

Declaring that the death of Caryl Gillard of Columbus was due to organic heart trouble and that there was no evidence to support the murder or suicide theories, Coroner Wylarch Thursday evening virtually concluded his investigation of the girl's death when he issued an order permitting Undertakers Bazler & Bradley to ship the body to Columbus for funeral and interment.

Coroner Wylarch visited the lake Thursday afternoon to investigate the story told that she was thrown into the water and that this act was seen by a boy who talked to a man named Leidig.

The latter was interviewed by the coroner who learned that in the telling of the story it had been enlarged upon. Leidig claims that the boy said he "heard" that the woman was thrown into the lake. This statement placed the situation in a different light and as this was the only clue upon which the murder theory rested, it was soon exploded.

The coroner also scouted at the idea of suicide as the girl was not drowned. It is the coroner's theory that she walked near the lake's edge while feeling ill and that the fatal attack of heart trouble seized her and she plunged into the water.

The dead: Carl Forbes and Mrs. Carl Forbes, Sacramento, Cal.; Mrs. Mabel Warner, Brookfield, Mo.; Mrs. William Roberts, Brookfield, Mo.; H. S. Vandeventer, Brookfield, Mo.; William Roberts was injured, it is believed, fatally.

Vandeventer was the owner and driver of the car. The party was on a pleasure tour from here to Brunswick, Mo.

MAY BE NO INQUEST IN DROWNING OF SEVEN

CORONER WYIARCH has not decided what course he will pursue in the inquiry he has made into the boat catastrophe at Buckeye Lake in which seven people are known to have been drowned. The coroner denied that he had prepared 31 subpoenas for immediate service on witnesses in the case. "I have not decided what course I will pursue in the matter," he declared.

FREE-FOR-ALL TROT AT GRAND CIRCUIT

DETROIT, Aug. 15.—For the final day of the Grand Circuit meet at the state fair track, the free-for-all trot, in which Dudie Archdale and Anvil, both M. and M. winners, and Cascade were entered was the main attraction. Both Anvil and Dudie Archdale are owned by Mr. Jones of Memphis. Geers was scheduled to drive Anvil and Mr. Jones was to pilot the mare and as each would rather win this event than a stake race, a warm contest was anticipated.

M'Kinley Granted Parole From Pen Today By the Administration Board

COLUMBUS, Aug. 15.—The state board of administration, sitting as a penitentiary parole board, today postponed consideration of the application of Rodney J. Diegle, former senate sergeant-at-arms, convicted in the bribery.

It was announced that the parole would be considered at the next meeting of the board in October. Diegle is working on the penitentiary farm at Morgan Station.

The board granted a parole to William B. McKinley, who was convicted of leading the Newark lynchings. McKinley, who was convicted of manslaughter, and was received at the penitentiary February 8, 1911, to serve twenty years. His application for a parole was accompanied by a statement from the Licking county prosecuting attorney, who said that an unusually heavy sentence was imposed on McKinley, owing to the state of the inflamed public mind at the time of his trial. His parole is effective September 1.

Thirteen persons received paroles. The Columbus men were James Harrison, received in November, 1911, to serve four years for burglary, who will be paroled October 1, and William McKinley, who was received in July, 1912, to serve three years for horse stealing. His parole is effective October 15.

The following additional paroles were granted:

Samuel Beaver, manslaughter, 15 years, Columbiana county; parole effective September 15.
Nick Bulborea, assault, three years, Guernsey county; effective Sept. 1.

John McBethers, manslaughter, 12 years, Cuyahoga county; effective October 1.

WOMAN SUICIDES HOLDING HER TWO BABIES IN ARMS

CROSBY, Minn., Aug. 15.—With her two babies in her arms and a towel over her face to protect them from the acid she had taken, Mrs. Lola Blair, 28 years of age, an exceptionally beautiful woman, died here today just after she had been served with a warrant for her arrest. The warrant was sworn out by Mrs. Guith, wife of a local contractor, and accused her of a statutory offense. Guith was arrested last night. When a deputy sheriff went to the Blair home today with the warrant, Mrs. Blair asked time to pack a suitcase. Permission given, she went to her bedroom, took her babies in her arms and died. She had drunk four ounces of poison.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Blair was known as one of Duluth's handsomest high school girls. She was married in 1904.

APPLICANTS JOURNEY TO COLUMBUS, O.

A number of applicants for the appointment of county liquor license commissioners left early today for Columbus where they will appear before the state board for examination as to their fitness for the position to which they aspire. They can also present their recommendations and if for any reason an applicant cannot go to Columbus, he may send a representative who can speak in his behalf.

Hon. W. D. Fulton, Licking county's representative in the legislature was seen today by an Advocate representative and when asked who he expected to enforce the appointment on the Licking board replied:

"I have not given the matter serious consideration for good reasons, chief of which is that I have not been requested to endorse any candidate by the state officials, and besides I understand that the selection will be made chiefly from the personal examination of the applicants by the state licensing board."

The naming of the Licking board may be deferred for several days in order to give the state board a chance to inquire into the qualifications of the candidates.

NEWSPAPERS TO ADVERTISE AMENDMENTS

COLUMBUS, Aug. 15.—There are more than 900 newspapers in Ohio, and State Printer Frank W. Harper has given every one of them a chance to advertise the four constitutional amendments to be voted upon by the people at the November election, according to a statement today. The legislature has appropriated $20,000 for this advertising, and the papers will get half the regular legal rate for carrying it. The advertisement is to be inserted once a week for a period of five weeks, beginning the week of September 21. The four amendments, those for eligibility of women to hold certain public offices, for exemption of public bonds from taxation and for the short ballot for state officers and for county officers. No such widespread publicity has ever been given public questions in Ohio as will be given these proposals.

FACING SERIOUS PROBLEM

Wrecked Crops In States of Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma

TWELFTH DAY OF HEAT

Number of Towns Are Sup- plied Water by Hauling It In On Tank Cars—The Springs and Wells are Dry.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 15.—How to get water for man and beast and how to save a little out of wrecked crops of corn and other late summer products presented Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, an increasingly serious problem today. It was the twelfth day of intense heat. Scattered showers last night were ineffective and while so much as half an inch of water fell yesterday at Topeka it was in restricted limits. Cisterns are dry all over the country.

Springs that never before were known to fail have ceased to flow. In many sections a good deep well is a gold mine. Long trains of tank cars supply several Oklahoma and western Kansas towns with all the water they get. A train of thirty cars of water was shipped from Pittsburg, Kans., today to the mines of a coal company in the Pittsburg district to be used by the hundreds of miners and their families and for operating the company's engines. The expense of shipping water, however, is so great that several smaller mines have shut down.

In a section of Seward county, Kans., where no rain has fallen in two months, the few wells that still give water are surrounded by campers, and families that have closed house and gone to tent near a water source.

Strange stories of heat pranks come from all parts of the country. From Alma, Kans., came a report, vouched for by one of the city fathers, that a woman in a moment of desperation, wishing to verify or kill forever the old story of frying an egg in the sun, had prepared a fresh laid one, nicely in a skillet with butter and "fried it to a T" on a flagstone before her door with only the sun for heat. Fire which did nearly a thousand dollars damage in the home of Dr. Theodore Kroesch at Enterprise, Kans., was attributed by the doctor to the sun's rays shining through a lamp chimney in his study window upon papers on a desk.

By noon in most sections of Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, the mercury was 100 or on the way to the 100 mark.

Farmers in the great Arkansas valley corn country where it is usually said to be "wet when everywhere else is dry," are cutting much of their semi-matured corn and rushing it through a grinder into the silos before the sun has drunk all the juice.

KILLED IN AUTO WRECK.
SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Two residents of Saratoga were killed and another fatally injured when their automobile left a highway and struck a tree today on a sharp turn at the foot of a hill. Albert J. Fountain and Charles Davis are dead and Carl Potter is in a hospital.

JAPAN

DESIRES FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES.

Feeling of Humiliation in Japan Fanned by Inflammatory Comments of Newspapers.

TOKIO, Aug. 15.—It was announced here today that the United States has intimated readiness to favor in principle the payment of an indemnity to Japanese subjects who have been affected by the California alien land ownership legislation. The United States has also recognized the rights of Japan to adopt a measure similar to the California bill.

From intimations given in official circles it appears unlikely that Japan will adopt either idea. What Japan desires is permanent friendly relations with the United States and therefore she seeks a fundamental solution of the difficulty. If the United States has no solution to offer it is stated, Japan will probably allow the matter to remain as a grievance. The public feeling of humiliation in this connection continues to be fanned by inflammatory comments in the newspapers. The Hochi Shimbun, which is often sensational, urges an object lesson to the United States, the expulsion of American missionaries from Korea on the ground that they are undesirable aliens.

Artist Ferdinand Pinney Earle to Be Divorced for Third Time and One of His Three Wives

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle, artist and discoverer of affinities, and the possessor—at various times—of three wives, seems ready to take another. His third wife, Mrs. Helen Theodora Siford Earle, daughter of an English family, is about to sue for divorce. She says she has ample grounds, which indicate that Earle has found a new affinity. He is at this time on the continent of Europe, and has not seen the third wife for some months.

Earle's first wife was Miss Emilie Fischbacher, daughter of a Paris bookseller. No attention was paid to Earle's love affairs until in 1908 he brought Miss Julia Kuttner home and told his wife that he had discovered that Miss Kuttner was his real soul mate. Mrs. Earle and their son went to Europe and she divorced him. Earle and his soul mate went to Venice and later were married. A short time later a son was born.

In 1910 the second wife had their marriage annulled on the ground that the wedding had taken place before Earle was free to marry under the French law.

While this case was pending Earle went to Europe with a young Chicago woman, but this affair was soon over. Next came word of another affinity, of which little was heard in this country, and then came the announcement that he had married Helen Theodora Siford, daughter of an English architect.

Terrible Crime Committed By Thugs Just Outside the City Limits of Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 15.—Mrs. E. M. Borts, thirty-eight, of Greensburg, Pa., is in a serious condition here today as the result of being criminally assaulted just outside the city limits at midnight by a highwayman, who committed the outrage after he and a companion had brutally beaten the woman's husband into unconsciousness and left him for dead.

Two suspects, Jack Yukovich and Frank Hortette, were arrested early this morning and held to the grand jury under $1,500 bond each, charged with the crime.

Borts, who is employed in Alliance, O., and his wife were brought to Youngstown by George Kane last evening in Kane's automobile. Kane and his wife and Borts and his wife had just finished a tour in the machine to Atlantic City. Mrs. Kane was left in Alliance while the others made the ride to Youngstown. Just outside this city, near Loveland, Kane sustained a puncture. He stopped to make repairs and Borts and his wife walked into this city to spend the night. On the way two strangers pounced upon Borts and began to beat him on the head. Mrs. Borts ran to give the alarm. One of the men chased her while the other continued his assault on her husband.

The woman was caught by her pursuer and dragged into a field, where she was assaulted and left semi-conscious.

Mrs. Borts managed to stagger to a nearby farmhouse, where she aroused the occupants and told her story. Farmers organized a posse to pursue the two thugs. Borts meanwhile had regained consciousness sufficiently to get to a farmhouse and telephone for the Youngstown police.

A squad of officers in an automobile responded, and after an all night search of the vicinity arrested the two men who are now in jail accused of the affray.

MEMORIAL IS ERECTED TO THE PILGRIMS

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Aug. 15.—A memorial in celebration of the tercentenary of the departure of pilgrims from Southampton for America was unveiled here today by Walter Hines Page, the United States ambassador. It is a column erected in sight of the pier from which they embarked on the Mayflower.

The ceremonies were presided over by the mayor of Southampton. Speeches were made by members of the Winslow and Brewster families, and by Joseph G. Butler of Youngstown, O., who unveiled the "Ohio panel" at the base of the monument. Ambassador Page dedicated the monument with an oration in which he quoted James Russell Lowell's saying that the pilgrims were only colonists who went in search of God instead of gold. He continued: "They had not been kindly enough treated in England, but still they wished to be English subjects." "In all the combination of the races of men and in all the workings of circumstances no other fusion of great forces was ever so nearly inevitable." "Freedom to worship led straight to the republican form of government and the democratic structure of the society on the Mayflower carried the seeds of all republican institutions, including even the seeds of recurring intolerances." "The American of today is as strong a believer in his great destiny as were the pilgrims of old." The monument designed by R. M. Lucas, is a column of stone with bronze panels representing heroic scenes in connection with the pilgrims. The cost was defrayed from public subscriptions taken in the United States and England.

UHRICHSVILLE, O., Aug. 15.—Ed Johnson, fireman, was fatally injured, 4 horses perished, 50 automobiles were destroyed and 550 tons of hay burned up in a fire that late last night swept an entire square in the business district here, burning practically every building to the ground. The loss is $75,000.

For three hours firemen fought desperately, fearing the flames would wipe out the entire business district. The fire departments of Denison and the Panhandle shops joined in the battle with the flames.

ASKS U. S. TO INTERVENE

Brother of Gov. Carranza, Head of the Revolution, Makes the Request—In- dians of Mexico Have Risen in Revolt.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 15.—John Lind, the personal representative of President Wilson had a conference lasting an hour late last night with Federico Gamboa, the Mexican foreign minister at Senor Gamboa's private residence. Mr. Lind went and returned unaccompanied.

Several thousand Indians in the Huasteco district of Vera Cruz have risen in revolt, according to official reports received here. The Indians are said to have listened to promises made to them by Carranza's agents that the land is to be divided among them. The Indians are poorly armed. The governor of the state of Vera Cruz has sent a mission to try to bring about their pacification.

Detachments of federal troops have been sent from here against bands of adherents of Emiliano Zapala, who have been operating in the neighborhood of Milpa Alta within the federal districts southeast of the capital. More troops have started against a group of rebels.

The Mexican consulate at El Paso reported to the government today that Colonel Jesus Carranza, a brother of Governor Venustiano Carranza of Coahuila, the head of the revolution, has asked the United States to intervene in Mexico.

SENATOR PENROSE SEEKS INFORMATION OF HALE'S MISSION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 15.—Senator Penrose forced another debate on the Mexican situation today by introducing a resolution calling upon President Wilson to inform the senate whether William Bayard Hale is in Mexico City as the agent of any executive department of the government, if so, by what authority was he appointed and what compensation he has been given.

The White House explanation of Hale's presence in Mexico has been that he was there as a personal friend of President Wilson forwarding information.

Senator Penrose declared that he had no desire to further complicate a delicate situation or to indulge in jingoism. He referred, however, to dispatches from Mexico telling of the serious plight of Shirley Hulsey, son-in-law of Lieutenant Governor Reynolds of Pennsylvania, who, with his wife and little daughter, are believed to be in danger from revolutionists near the city of Chihuahua. The senator declared that unless the mission of John Lind developed marked change in conditions in Mexico, he would address the senate next week, laying before it certain information he did not disclose today.

"Things are getting pretty close to home," declared Senator Penrose, "and are becoming serious when American citizens are molested and their lives and property are endangered. Personally, I am willing to wait a few days to see if the mysterious mission of Mr. Lind produces any tangible result. In the event that it does not early next week I expect to address the senate on conditions in Mexico and will offer a resolution, which, I hope, will go some way toward asserting the dignity of the United States and its firm intention to protect the lives and property of Americans in Mexico."

Mr. Penrose asked Chairman (Continued on Page Twelve, Col. 1.)

TOURNAMENT IS OPENED TODAY AT CAMP PERRY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Camp Perry, O., Aug. 15.—With ideal weather conditions prevailing and 540 contestants ready on the 1000 yard range, the first shot in the great Wimbledon cup match was fired today, opening the 1913 tournament of the National Rifle association. The haze which hung over the targets at the start of the first relay, at 7 a. m., did not seriously interfere, and there was not a bit of breeze.

At the end of the first relay, Lieutenant Colonel C. B. Winder of the Ohio National Guard had made a score of 99 out of a possible 100. He made his miss in the fifteenth round. At the end of the second relay, Corporal Thomas E. Vereer, of Company G, the Fourteenth United States Infantry, had also made a score of 99, but as his miss was made in the eleventh round, this gives him the lead in this match. With six relays yet to be fired it is thought that a possible score of 100 will be made.

The high score made by Corporal Vereer was accomplished with a free sight. Colonel Winder used the telescope sight.

The entries for the Wimbledon cup include the Ohio men who will make up the state team this year. These men, using new guns which did not arrive until this morning, had their first tryout today.

In the Catrow cup match, which also began today, a large number of possible scores were made in the first relay, which was shot on the 800 yard range. This relay is of seven shots and the possible score is 35.

The Argentine and Peruvian teams have made individual entries in the Wimbledon match but admit that work on the long distance ranges is not their class of shooting.

SULZER

returned from Saratoga this morning and called at the office of Lieutenant Governor Glynn before the latter's arrival at the capitol.

"I merely called to pay my respects," said Secretary May, "and to assure Mr. Glynn personally that I have decided to recognize him as acting governor of the state. As I read the law I can find no other way to act consistently. It is not, with me, a case of taking sides. I can see no other way to perform my duty under the constitution."

"I have not yet asked the attorney general for an opinion as to whom I should recognize. However, if I am asked to certify any act of William Sulzer as governor I shall submit the question to the attorney general and await his formal opinion before taking action."

A sensational report was current this morning that Governor Sulzer would seek the indictment for treason of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall and organization leaders who command the anti-Sulzer forces in the battle for impeachment.

"There's nothing to it," asserted D. Cady Herrick, chief of Sulzer's staff of lawyers when asked if the report were true.

Lieutenant Governor Glynn on entering his office at the capitol this morning announced that he would call upon Governor Sulzer formally to vacate his office today.

Preparations as if for a long siege were made at the executive chamber upon the arrival of Lieutenant Governor Glynn at the capitol. The locks on every door leading to the chamber and the governor's private office were changed and an attendant was stationed at each entrance.

Mrs. Sulzer still lay ill today unable to see friends and with specialists in constant attendance at her bedside. She was improved when she awoke this morning from a refreshing sleep, but was still gravely ill.

Aaron J. Levy, majority leader of the Assembly, who led the fight on "the Assembly floor for impeachment," is also suffering from a nervous breakdown. He is at a local hotel and was reported better this morning.

The impeachment of Governor Sulzer will not affect his salary check preliminary to or during the impeachment trial. He will continue to draw $832 a month from the office of the comptroller during the remainder of his term unless convicted on the impeachment charges. Then, of course his salary would stop.

Members of the Senate, whose regular salary is $1500 a year, for a short time, receive pay at the rate of $12,000 a year each. This will be during the time they are sitting with the judges of the state court of appeals as a court of impeachment. Under the law their salaries are automatically increased to $12,000 the same as that of judges of the court of appeals—when they sit as members of the court of impeachment.

PROBLEM MAY CONFRONT THE GOVERNMENT

Washington, Aug. 15.—The federal government soon may be confronted with the problem of determining whom it will recognize as governor of New York. Under the Dick law, the national guard enjoys government aid, but requisitions for arms, ammunition and supplies and transportation must be approved by the governor. There is the probability of this question coming up in connection with some militia maneuvers at Peekskill, N. Y. in September. The war department, however, it is stated, would not attempt the responsibility of deciding between Sulzer and Glynn, but would hold up New York's requisitions until the state legislature or the courts decide the dispute.

Another way in which the question might come up in a more pressing manner, and one which officials regard as probable, would be in an extradition case. Should some foreign government ask for a person in New York state, the federal government would be compelled to call upon the governor and in that way recognize one of the contestants. White House officials, indignant at intimations that President Wilson has expressed any opinion in the Sulzer case, reiterated that the federal government will not be involved. There is every effort apparent on the part of the executive departments to keep out of the dispute.

Adjutant General Hamilton of the New York national guard has been here, but it is disclaimed that his visit has to do with the situation.

CLAIM AN ERROR.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Trenton, N. J., Aug. 15.—It developed today that an error was made last night in the announcement that Governor Fielding of New Jersey had recognized Lieutenant Governor Glynn as the governor of New York in making requisition for a man arrested in New York City on a criminal charge and who was wanted in Hudson county, New Jersey.

The executive clerk in the governor's office here stated today that in forwarding the requisition paper no name was used, the document merely having been addressed to "The Governor of the State of New York" as had been the custom.

SYNOPSIS OF THE COMPULSORY EDUCATION LAW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Aug. 15.—Because of the misunderstanding on the part of school boards and trustee officers regarding the provisions of the new compulsory education law, Frank W. Miller, state superintendent of public instruction, has prepared a synopsis of the law, which is based on interpretations given on it by rulings of Attorney General Hogan. With the approach of the time for the reopening of the fall term of school, requests are pouring in on the department from all parts of the state, for enlightenment on the law.

In brief, this is what the new law provides: That every boy between the ages of eight and fifteen years, and every girl between the ages of eight and sixteen years, must attend school.

That every boy between the age of 15 and 16 years not engaged in some regular employment, must attend school.

That such attendance must begin the first week of the school term and continue for the full time that the school attended is in session, which shall in no case be for less than 28 weeks.

That no person, firm or corporation, shall employ any child under 15 years of age in any business whatever during any of the hours when the public schools are in session.

That no boy under 16 years of age and no girl under 15 years of age shall be employed, unless such child presents an age and schooling certificate approved by the superintendent of public schools.

That no boy is entitled to an age and schooling certificate until he is 15 years of age and has passed a satisfactory sixth grade test, and no girl until she is 16 years of age and has passed a satisfactory seventh grade test.

That any boy between 15 and 16 years of age, who ceases to work, must return to school within two weeks, unless he secures other employment within such time.

WANT MEDICAL INSPECTION OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., Aug. 15.—Ohio physicians will take a prominent part in the movement to urge every community in the state to institute medical inspection of school children as made possible by the Greenlund Child Welfare code which became a law this week.

The statewide campaign to popularize medical inspection in schools will be formally launched at the annual convention of the Ohio State Medical association at Cedar Point, the first week in September. Dr. J. H. J. Upham of Columbus, is general secretary of the state organization. The plan will be presented to Dr. H. R. McClellan of Xenia, chairman of the legislative committee of the state medical society, who has been at the head of the campaign which has been waged for years to make medical inspection of school children over the state.

The Greenlund code gives every board of education in the state the right to employ a school physician, who is empowered to make a medical examination of all school children at the first of the year, and to carry a card index report on the general state of their health.

Dr. E. E. McCampbell, secretary of the state board of health, is urging that the smaller cities of the state, take advantage of this provision of the Greenlund bill, points out that nearly three-fourths of the school children of Ohio are physically defective in some manner, either slightly or seriously.

Fashion Chat SUITS AND COATS

Dame Fashion is already hinting at her autumn secrets and every word she says is instantly mirrored in McClain's STYLE SHOP of Women's Apparel.

In the suits—the cutaway models predominate both in medium and long effects; some with the long sloping back and short front, others not so pronounced. Some of the extreme styles show no skirt to coat below waist line in front.

As for the skirts, some are draped enough to seem almost voluminous till you see them on, then they fall into the slender, clinging silhouette.

The latest women's coats—the season's first arrivals, are knee length and longer, the most striking feature being the broad hip belt, though many carry out the straight line effect which it has been decreed shall continue another season.

The kimono-shaped wrap is a great favorite and any good shape which can be folded around the body and held together in front—literally wrapped around one, is in high favor.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

Card of Thanks.

I'm thinking that Autumn will shortly be here, the flies watch me swat 'em—will they disappear? I'm thankful that August full soon will be missed, for 's the soonest old month in the list! I'm thankful that winter is coming apace, for then we begin to have fun on the place, how sweet to the yearner, how sweet to his soul, the trusty baseburner, the kindling and coal! How sweet to the thinker, who swelters and sweats, are stovepipe and chinker, and snow on the stairs! I'm thankful the bally thermometer that's keeping its tally, while citizens sweat, will soon cease striving to mount to the skies, while sufferers, frying, gasp on it with sighs. I'm thankful the climate, which now is too worse for poets to rhyme it, or prophets to curse, will soon take a rest in its sail and reform, and then we'll quit beefin' because it's so warm!

Facility In Divorce Helps to Improve Morality In Marriage

By E. de FOREST LEACH, President of the National Divorce Reform Association

MARRIAGE is not, as is generally considered, a fiction. Two classes look upon it as such. Churchmen regard marriage as a THEOLOGICAL FICTION. Lawyers regard it as a purely LEGAL FICTION.

That marriage is a biological fact, having its position in nature well prescribed by easily defined terms; that it is much older than and CAN EXIST ENTIRELY INDEPENDENT OF THE RELIGIOUS AND LEGAL LIMITATIONS with which some have sought to encumber it, is recognized, I think, by all scholars who search after truth without being blindfolded.

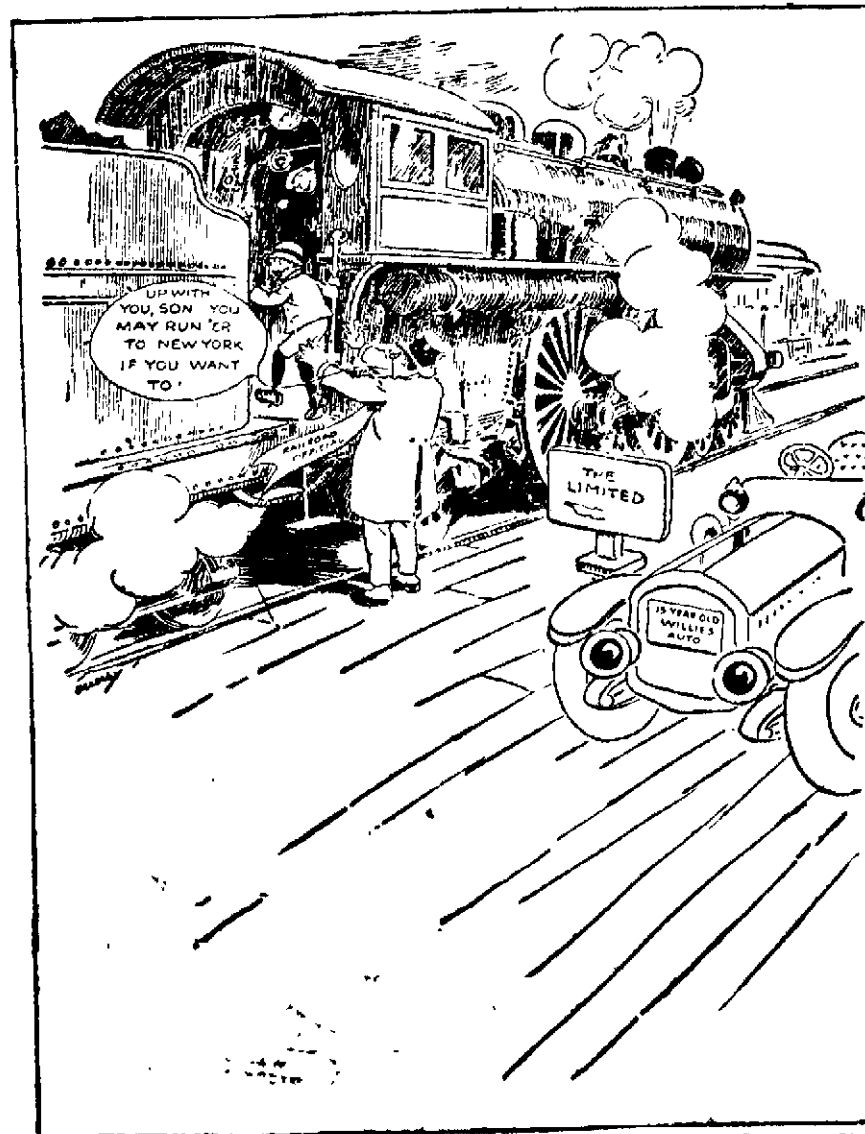

FACILITY IN DIVORCE IS A MOST POTENT AGENCY IN IMPROVING THE MORALITY IN MARRIAGE. FORMERLY ANYTHING WAS CONSIDERED PROPER WHEN THE MAN AND WOMAN WERE MARRIED. THE MISSION OF MORALITY SEEMED TO CEASE WITH THE MARRIAGE CEREMONY.

Personally I have never known a divorce but was MORE MORAL THAN THE MARRIAGE IT DISSOLVED. I cannot imagine a more immoral and degrading condition for a civilized man and woman to live in than to be compelled to live together when they do not want to.

Of course there are many persons who will agree with this statement and who may well say: "Let them separate. Let them live apart, but under no condition let them remarry."

Those who make such statements LITTLE REALIZE THE FORCES WITH WHICH THEY ARE DEALING. Their blindness or shallowness would be little less than amusing were it not for the suffering which such condition causes. Better informed persons shudder at the consequence of such a practice.

Heat a Menace to Lives of Old Folks

Sickness and Misery Result From Clogged Bowels in Hot Weather.

People advancing in years should be very careful of their health during the hot months, as heat has a very enervating and weakening effect on them. One has only to look at the daily list of fatalities to elderly people reported by the papers to realize that these are the hardest months for them to overcome.

The easily digested foods should be eaten, and then only sparingly, and alcoholic beverages and food things should be avoided as much as possible. Exercise should be taken daily in the shade. Most important of all in the maintenance of health and vigor at this time is to avoid constipation, with its accompanying headaches and muscular and blood congestion. This is accomplished by the timely use of a gentle laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is the ideal laxative for elderly people, as it is mild, tastes pleasant and does not gripe. Best of all, it contains valuable tonic properties that build up and strengthen the system.

Elderly people should avoid strong physics, cathartics, purgatives, salts and pills, as they are a shock to the system. In the opinion of reliable people like Mrs. C. J. Nicholas, 2010 Emerson St., Berkeley, Cal., who esteems it a benefit to mankind, and Ida C. Milchack, 210 N. Law St., Allentown, Pa., who declares that her stomach and bowels are now in perfect working order, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the right remedy to use. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. The latter size is bought steadily by those who already know its value.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it, postpaid, by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 418 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Mr. Swallow And His Bedtime Story.

Mr. Swallow Warned His Little Ones.

THE smiling faces of Jack and Evelyn were presented to daddy. "Well, sweethearts, here we are again," said he; "bedtime at hand. Two little folks waiting for me to begin a story and poor daddy without an idea in his head."

"I wish I were as carefree as Mr. Swallow seems to be out there as I saw him flying home to the wife and little ones that he has over there in the barn. I wonder if Mr. Swallow has to tell bedtime stories to his little fledglings?"

"What do you suppose he would tell them?" the children asked.

"Well, let me see," daddy said. "I should fancy Mr. Swallow might spin a yarn something like this:

"My little downy darlings, be very careful to cuddle close together in your nice nest up here among the beams of this quiet barn."

"Old Dobbin and Mrs. Bossy are our kind friends. They like to have us about because we catch and kill the horrid flies that annoy them."

"Sheppie, the big shaggy dog who sometimes comes in here to sleep, would not harm us, but beware of the ogre cat that eats little birds alive."

"Puss is out in the barn a great deal of her time because she can get so many rats and mice here. I do not mind her killing the rats, for rats eat birds' eggs and are very disagreeable creatures; but, though she seems to be so gentle, she is a very great hunter, and I have heard that unless she has been taught to let them alone will catch birds as well as rats and mice."

"You must be careful not to go too close to the edge of the nest lest you fall over and the cat get you. She cannot climb up here, so you are quite safe as long as you stay at home."

"Mrs. Swallow says very mildly: 'Perhaps if the children who live in the house knew about our babies they would watch the cat and we can teach our little ones to fly. They come out here sometimes to play, and I've found them to be very nice children. They feed the birds on the lawn every day, and Mrs. Purple Martin told me that the dear little bungalow on top of the pole in the yard where she and her family are living this year was put up by the children.'

"You may be right, my dear," Mr. Swallow answers mildly. "I have not been home so much as you and have had no chance to get acquainted with the children, but how are we to let them know that we would like them to watch the cat?"

"Don't you see the children's daddy down there feeding the horse?" Mrs. Swallow answers. "Perhaps if we ask him to tell them he will do so."

"A splendid idea," Mr. Swallow exclaims. Then both of them tuck their heads under their wings and go to sleep. Wasn't it a good thing daddy was right there and understood swallow talk?"

The Movies

The Airdome was packed last night to witness the splendid feature photoplay, "The Wife of Cain" as presented by the Helen Gardner picture players. The picture is shown in four parts and is remarkably clear and distinct. In fact, Newark is the third showings of this big feature, having been shown only in Dayton and Middletown previous to the engagement here. Miss Gardner plays the role of the woman in a manner and is supported by players who are to the man real artists. The production is lavishly put on, both in attention to detail and correctness of costume, and is well worth seeing. It will be repeated at the Airdome again tonight in addition to a big spectacular war drama entitled "When Sherman Marched to the Sea."

The Auditorium will reopen for business tomorrow afternoon when "The Half-Breed Sheriff" and "His Weakness Conquered" will be on the program.

GERMAN ALLIANCE ASKS MERCHANTS TO DECORATE PLACES

The local committee in charge of the convention of the German-American Alliance of Ohio, which meets here one week from today, has made a request of all local merchants to decorate their places of business for the three days of the convention.

In other cities the business houses were elaborately decorated for the occasion and the committee in charge of the entertainment does not want Newark to make a poor impression in comparison to the hosts of past years.

According to announcements received by those in charge here, excursions will be run from Columbus to Newark. A special train will bring the delegation from Cincinnati and special cars will be run from Toledo and Cleveland for the delegates from those cities.

The convention will be in session August 22, 23 and 24. A big picnic at Moundbuilders park will feature the closing day.

OVERHEARD on OLYMPUS by Barbara Boyd

The Dangerous Life of the Bachelor

BEAU BRUMMEL had crept into a dense thicket and was drawing the first few breaths of relief he had known for some time. Suddenly his heart gave a great throb and he listened intently.

"I think I hear a noise like a skirt," he muttered to himself.

He mopped his forehead nervously. "I believe I am losing my nerve," he said. "Women don't use to worry me so. But being the only famous bachelor around is different." He sighed. "Eternal vigilance is the price of bachelorhood up here."

"This isn't at all a nice place to sit," he complained, looking around. "I'll ruin my clothes. I've torn my sleeve ruffles already. And Olympus tailors charge such outrageous prices." He sighed again, thinking of the ebb state of his bank account.

"Hello, Beau," exclaimed a cheery voice, and Diana pushed the bushes. "I almost shot you. I took you for a deer."

Brummel laughed, weakly. Then he gallantly arose. "Pray be seated, Miss Di. It is not a very pleasant place to rest. It's rather damp and muddy."

"Oh, I don't mind that," replied Diana, dropping down. "But how is it you are here?"

Brummel smiled a little foolishly. "Oh, I like to find a quiet spot now and then."

"Far from the maddening crowd. I know," said Diana. "I do myself. I think you and I are kindred spirits."

"Heavens! So soon?" groaned Brummel to himself, looking around wildly and working his brain hard for a plan to escape.

"Don't you feel well?" asked Diana, gently.

"Oh yes, thank you, quite well." He wondered how soon it would be polite to beat it.

"You have about as hard a time to avoid the girls as I do the men," went on Diana. "It's not easy to be either an old bachelor or an old maid these days, with everybody preaching about late marriages and such things."

Brummel looked at her suspiciously. This was a new form of attack. He didn't just know where he would be hit.

"Yes," he agreed cautiously.

"Bachelors, either men or women, are very much misunderstood," went on Diana. "Of course, I can't speak for you, but I have no objection to marriage."

"Eh!" exclaimed Brummel, starting and clutching his hat.

"That is, for other people," explained Diana. "I'm not a misogynist. I think that's what you call 'em."

"It sounds like it," said Brummel, gloomily.

"I say, let those who want to get married, get married. But also let those who want to stay single, stay single."

"If they only would let 'em," murmured Brummel.

"Without taxing them and ranting about their being selfish and all such rot."

"Exactly. I fully agree with you."

"I knew you and I were of one mind."

"I must be going," said Brummel, hastily recalling a fateful line about "two minds with but a single thought." "You'll excuse me, won't you. I have an engagement?"

"Oh, certainly," replied Diana. She watched his retreating figure with an amused glance. "It's fun to tease him," she thought, "but wouldn't you think with a nice new crop of bachelors coming on every year, some of the old ones would relax the tension?"

VISITING BOARD INSPECTS GIRLS' DELAWARE SCHOOL

The Licking county board of visitors was at the Girls' Industrial school Thursday. Those attending were Mrs. Ida Chase, O. C. Larason, and C. L. V. Holtz of Newark and Mrs. Fred Seymour of Granville. Mrs. Ida Jones was detained at home on account of sickness.

The farm, consisting of 189 acres, lies in the southern part of Delaware county, about four miles from Hyatt station. The board found all the bridges washed out in that part of the state, but the rivers are low and easily forded. There are 415 girls in the school now, ten of whom are from Licking county.

Miss Dye, appointed by Governor Harmon, and who has done so much for the building up of the school, has recently severed her connection and now is superintendent of a similar school at Chillicothe, Mo. Mrs. McNamara is now acting superintendent. The newest cottage of the school, "No. 11," is an ideal cottage for such an institution. There are 36 girls in it and each one is furnished with an individual bed room, neatly, though not lavishly equipped, and each girl is taught to carefully care for her room.

FREE AMUSEMENTS FOR CELEBRATION HERE LABOR DAY

Preparations for the most gigantic and successful celebration of Labor Day ever held in Newark are almost completed, but the general committee is still working and hustling and making final arrangements. Some of the free attractions to be presented this year are entirely new and exceedingly amusing—a full program of events in attractive pamphlet form, will be issued next week. Read it and familiarize yourself with its contents. Notice the unusual number of live firms whose "ads" adorn its pages, and whose patronage has greatly assisted in assuring the success of the day.

As on former occasions the celebration will be formally opened with a monster parade, participated in by all union organizations of Newark, together with those from neighboring cities. As previously mentioned it will consist of four divisions, each in charge of a marshal. The first three will comprise the labor bodies, the fourth will consist of a grand industrial parade of live firms and business men generally. Numerous bands will add to the enjoyment of the spectators. Don't fail to be on hand at 10 o'clock a. m. as Grand Marshal Streit announces that for once the parade will start on time, and from the well known efficiency of the assistant marshals there is no doubt of his fulfilling his promise.

Present indications assure the largest, greatest and grandest labor gathering ever held in Newark. Lend your assistance and this assurance will be realized and a happy, enjoyable and profitable day will result to all. A few desirable privileges for stands and booths around the square remain untaken. Those desiring to secure a place should see Charles Roeser, 60 German street, Auto phone 3224. As the city has granted this exclusive right to the Labor Day committee, no person can erect a stand or sell anything from baskets in or about the public square unless the above permission is secured. The cost is small. See to it at once.

Concrete laid in July totalled 17,568 cubic yards as against 32,642 cubic yards in the previous month.

Some men and some women get their complexions out of bottles. But the women take theirs externally.—Luke McLuke in Cincinnati Enquirer.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, Aug. 15.—[Special.]—Why cannot the lawyers of congress write intelligent laws? That question is never answered. Although four-fifths of the legislators are lawyers, they do not make laws which can be construed without great difficulty.

A case in point is in regard to the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Johnston of Alabama. The lawyers who framed and voted for the seventeenth amendment under which senators are now elected do not seem to be able to tell what that amendment means in the first real test which comes under it.

Heretofore governors could fill senatorial vacancies by appointment. The new amendment clumsily provides that the governor must call a special election or the legislature may empower him to fill the vacancy. But Alabama has made no provision for electing senators, hence it is claimed nothing can be done. Maryland also has a complication, both of which will be thrashed out after long debates in the senate.

Want the Vote.

What makes the Alabama case particularly interesting is the fact that the Democrats want that vote in passing the tariff bill. They had only two majority before with the Louisiana senators against them, now they have only one majority, and some Democrats may take it into his head to demand something, which the majority will not give, and turn against the bill. There is not much possibility of that happening, yet the Democratic leaders are somewhat nervous and would like to have the Alabama vacancy filled.

Toying With Suffrage.

As chairman of the rules committee Bob Henry has an opportunity to toy with woman suffrage. They have been trying to have a committee on woman suffrage appointed in the house. Such a committee was named twenty-five years ago in the senate in order to give one of the older minority senators a chairmanship.

It continued as a minority committee until the present congress, when the woman suffragist senators stole a march on the others, made it a majority committee, put Charley Thomas of Colorado at its head and named a majority of both parties as members. That committee reported out the constitutional amendment for woman suffrage. Now the suffragists want a like committee in the house, and Bob Henry is coyly toying with the subject.

Gets-It! Cures Corns Alright!

Easy as One, Two, Three! No Fuss! No Pain, by Using "GETS-IT."

Just take two seconds to put a little "GETS-IT" on that corn. That corn is "done for" as sure as the sun rises. The corn shrivels up, vanishes. That's

"We Can Dance All Night and Our Corns Won't Hurt. We Both Use 'GETS-IT'—It Gets Corns Every Time, Dead Sure!"

the surprise you get by using this new plan on corns. There's nothing to stick to the stocking or sock; you corn pains stop. You're saved the bother of applying plasters that make the corn bulge out from the shoe. You're saved selves that eat into the healthy flesh and "pull" no more fussing with bandages. You don't have to help by picking and dragging out your corns, or cutting with knives or razors.

"GETS-IT" is safe, painless, stops pain, never hurts healthy flesh. It is guaranteed. Try it on warts, calluses, and bunions, too.

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

FUNERAL OF THE AUTO VICTIMS AT MT. VERNON

Relatives of J. B. Borders Tell of Career and Reveal Facts of His Identity.

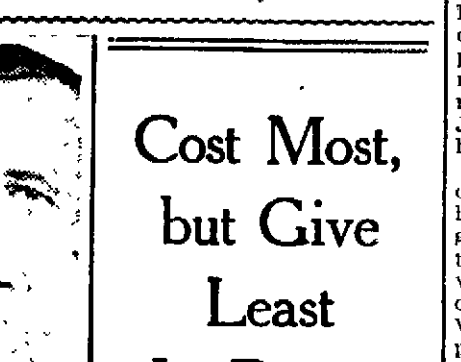

Columbus, Aug. 15.—Not until yesterday, upon the arrival of the father, two brothers and two sisters of J. B. Borders, who, with his wife Etta and daughter Isabel and Abe Paul, a friend, was killed in the automobile accident Tuesday evening, was the true identity of Mr. Borders revealed.

Members of his family say that he was born in Louisville, Ky., where his father, W. E. Borders, is a well known contractor. When J. B. Borders was 19 years of age he left home in order to travel. Little was heard from him for several years. He spent much of his time in India, which accounts for the rumor that he was born there, and during the Boer war was special war correspondent for the New York world.

He was so reticent about his family relationships that not even his wife's family, the Sandersons of Delaware, knew his true identity until yesterday. Mr. Borders' mother was a member of the Robinson family of Kentucky and was distantly related to Lord Breckenridge of England.

Besides W. E. Borders, the father, others who arrived yesterday were two brothers, E. J. and Albert Borders, respectively of Louisville and Monticello, Ky., and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Craig of Evansville, Ind. and Mrs. May Thompson of Louisville.

The Borders declared themselves well satisfied with the arrangements of the Sanderson family to have the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Borders and daughter interred at Mt. Vernon and the body of Mr. Paul in Green Lawn cemetery. The joint funeral took place at 10:30 this morning at Trinity church.

American Cities Are Failures

By Professor CHARLES E. MERRIAM.

Cost Most, but Give Least In Return

Alderman of Chicago

IN AMERICAN CITIES THE FAILURE OF THE GOVERNMENT TO KEEP PACE WITH THE CHANGES GOING ON AROUND US HAS LED TO DISASTROUS RESULTS. THE GOVERNMENT OF OUR CITIES IN GENERAL IS NEITHER AS EFFICIENT, AS ECONOMICAL NOR AS POPULAR AS IS DESIRABLE AND POSSIBLE. IT IS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF OUR CITIES IS THE MOST EXPENSIVE AND LEAST EFFICIENT IN THE WORLD. WE PAY MORE AND RECEIVE LESS THAN THE CITIES OF OTHER COUNTRIES.

Inefficient government might be tolerated if it represented the people. But most cities during the last generation have been governed by a combination of POLITICAL MACHINES AND SPECIAL INTERESTS.

The political boss and the public service corporation have been the chief factors in our municipal system. They have endeavored to dominate both political parties and to reduce all elections to a friendly contest BETWEEN TWO SETS OF THEIR OWN PUPPETS. These interests have been themselves entirely nonpartisan, though they have worked in and through political parties and have used party names, party symbols and party principles as a CLOAK FOR THEIR OWN PROJECTS.

They hide behind Lincoln and Roosevelt or Jefferson and Jackson as prudence indicates. They have relied upon the division of honest citizens into opposing political camps, while they themselves have organized and combined with entire disregard of party line or party distinction.

OUTRIGHT GRAFT AND THEFT ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR MUCH OF THE LOSS THAT FALLS UPON THE TAXPAYER. THE EXISTENCE OF THE SPOILS SYSTEM IS ENORMOUSLY EXPENSIVE AND WASTEFUL.

The general atmosphere of politics surrounding the average city hall is not favorable to the adoption of systematic and orderly business methods. We cannot expect to secure a proper system of street cleaning if every laborer and team has to be selected because of Republican or Democratic affiliations. Repeated investigations of the expenditures of city governments have revealed FRAUD, FAVORITISM AND INEFFICIENCY ON A TREMENDOUS SCALE.

Assault Case.

In the case of J. W. Evans vs Frank Baughman, a suit for $2,000 damages, Evans has filed an affidavit in common pleas, swearing that he is a resident of Newark, living at 435 Clarendon street. Baughman is charged with assault, it being alleged that he struck Evans and knocked him down.

ABOUT TAPPING IN DROPSY

Nearly everybody knows that when the dropsy comes so fast in Bright's Disease that the patient has to be tapped that the case is hopeless so far as the old treatment is concerned. We never heard of a case recovering that required tapping until Fulton's Renal Compound was evolved. Under the Renal Compound recoveries are frequently reported even in this supposed hopeless stage. We recite two cases:

F. H. Chandler of Clay, New York, was a very serious case. As high as four quarts of water were drawn at a tapping. He was put on Fulton's Renal Compound and a year thereafter had resumed employment.

Another—Patient six years old, the son of A. C. Dean of Oakland, Cal., was tapped eight times; even had to be tapped after being put on Fulton's Renal Compound, but the tapping grew further apart and he made a recovery and was going to school at last advice.

What do these things mean if Bright's Disease is not curable? If you have Bright's Disease you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Renal Compound before giving up. It can be had at F. D. Hall's drug store.

Ask for pamphlet on our investigation into the curability of Bright's Disease or write John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco.

Summerland Beach, August 15—The Orphean Musical Club entertained Thursday afternoon and evening before large audiences with concerts which were largely made up of popular music. The men who compose this quartette are all talented. At the close of the performance Mr. Henry proved himself to be quite a crayon artist, doing some artistic drawings with crayons on rough paper. Mr. Crumbaker read two selections which showed his ability in monologue. The quartette also rendered some excellent instrumental music. The evening program follows:

was unfortunately omitted by the management in today's program, and consequently both today and evening.

Rev. Geo. E. Guille, who followed Lincoln this in the 9:30 B. B. Hour, took for the subject of his lecture this morning, “The Sign of the Saints.” The object of this lecture was to set forth the teachings of the Scriptures as to God's provisions for the sins of his people. Dr. Guille is an earnest Christian, a deep thinker and is proving himself an effective teacher in the Bible Work.

“This teaching,” said Rev. Guille, “is always found in connection with their fellowship with Christ, for the reason that it is their fellowship, not their relationship, that is broken by their sin. Every blessing that can be named depends upon fellowship—the fullness of joy, the peace of God, keeping heart and mind. No Christian can be happy who has allowed, by his careless way, his fellowship with the Father to be broken. If he were happy away from God, he would remain away.

“How is the sin which interferes with our fellowship put away and the fellowship restored? John answers: My little children, these things, concerning our fellowship with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ, write I unto you that ye sin not, and in any man sin we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous.

“He does not say if any man repent or pray to be forgiven but if any man sin, and the any man is here of course, any one of these little children who know their position as born of God. Their Advocate is righteous and there is no compromise of Himself in undertaking for those of his own who sin.

“The thirteenth chapter of John presents a picture of the Advocate at his work. There He washes the disciples' feet and does it in view of His going to the Father. Hand-the place of the girded servant for all His own. Nor does He say, no part in me. In Christ is the position of every believer, a position which cannot change. With Christ is fellowship and in order to win this part with Him, He must keep our feet cleansed. The feet are mainly the symbol of our walk through the world.

“Peter goes to the other extreme, then, and says ‘Lord not my feet only but my hands and my head,’ only to be met with the wonderful answer, ‘he that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet only, but is clean every whit.’ Two different words He uses whose significance does not appear in the translation. The first word means ‘to bathe’—used after the bathing of the entire body; the second means ‘to rinse’ and was used of the washing of the hands and feet. The meaning is clear—he to whom the blood of Christ has been applied, needs no second application—He believes washed ‘with the washing of regeneration’ needs now only to be cleansed ‘with the washing of water by the word,’ from the defilement of his daily walk. Christ died to make us clean; He lives to keep us clean. We are made just as clean as His blood can keep us. And thus no stain of sin ever appears before God upon the life of the meanest of His own. His name and honor are involved in His people and He would be compromised on the side of righteousness if He allowed such a stain upon them.

“Thus we view our Advocate, risen from the supper—type of his death and gone up to God; there the girded servant of our manifold needs.

“But what has this to do with the broken fellowship? How does His Advocate affect it? It does more than to put away defilement; it leads the soul into the place of self judgment and confession. And so it is written in John 1:9—‘If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.’ These words are addressed to the children, ‘born ones’ of God, and have no application to the unsaved. It is one thing for the sinner to come confessing himself a sinner to God. It is quite another thing for a child to come to the Father. If we children confess our sins to the Father, the Father is faithful and righteous to forgive.

“The stain of the sin is put away by my Advocate, I come to the Father in confession of the sin that has interrupted my fellowship with Him and the moment I do so that fellowship is restored and I lay down my head once more upon His bosom.”

CHARGES THE FILM COMPANY WITH MONOPOLY

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Cleveland, Aug. 15.—(Charge)—that the General Film company of New York, is a company in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman trust law, Joseph H. Sammlner, as assignee of the claims of the Lake Shore Film and Supply company of Cleveland, Thursday filed suit in federal court here for $100,000 damages under the triple damage provision of the law.

The petition charges that the business of the Lake Shore Film and Supply company, an reputed films and machings the Lake Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan has practically been ruined by the monopolistic methods of the General Film company. Leading up to its plea for damages, the petition recites the story of the moving picture trade as it alleges it to have been conducted since 1908. The companies alleged to have entered the alliance were:

The American Mantiscope and Biograph company, New Jersey; Edison Mfg. company, New Jersey; Essanay Film company, New York; Kalem company, New York; Lubin Mfg. company, Pennsylvania; Pathé Freres, New Jersey; Vitagraph company of America, New York; Mollie Mfg. company, New York and the Selig Polyscope company, Illinois.

Federal officials say that if the claim is established a federal investigation is likely to follow.

First Things

The first American newspaper in California, and the first real newspaper in the Pacific West, was the California, which was issued at Monterey by Robert Semple and Walter Colton, forty-seven years ago today. Two years before that the Flumadgion Gazette or Bumble Bee Budget, “according to scratching and stinging the bones of the age,” had been established in Oregon, but its existence was brief, and it was more a humorous publication than a newspaper. The One an Spectator, founded in 1846, in same year as the Monterey Californian, was published in Oregon City, and was the first bona fide newspaper in the Pacific Northwest. When gold was discovered in California, the New York newspapers began to issue California editions, which were sent by thousands to San Francisco. Among the existing great newspapers of California are the Sacramento Union, founded in 1851, and the San Francisco Bulletin, established in 1853. The Bulletin waged a determined warfare against the crooks and gamblers, and the shooting of its editor, James King, by a politician named Casey resulted in the revival of the vigilance committee. The early California papers attracted many brilliant men, including Mark Twain, Joaquin Miller, Bret Harte, Prefecture Mulford, Charles Warren Stoddard and many others. It was for the Sacramento Union that Mark Twain made his trip to the Sandwich Islands.

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1911 Sam Langford defeated "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien in five rounds at New York. The bout was scheduled for ten rounds, but was stopped in the fifth to save the Philadelphia champion from further punishment. The present crop of white heavyweights haven't scrambled over each other in their anxiety to meet the Boston "bar baby," but "Philadelphia Jack," although too light for a heavyweight, was made of different stuff. He would fight anybody, once, and during his fighting career met Fitz, Johnson, Kid McCoy, Tommy Burns, and other top-notchers. He fought a draw with Burns when the latter was heavyweight champion, but later was defeated by the Canadian. His fight with Langford was his last important bout.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Curative Properties of Salt.

For catarrh a lukewarm solution of salt and milk should be stuffed up the nostrils three times a day, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of the salt being used in a half pint of milk. Chronic sore eyes should be bathed frequently with water in which a small amount of salt is dissolved, while it is applied very strong to sprains and bruises. Moistened salt should be bound upon burns, and if applied in time it will prevent all blistering. Mixed with the white of an egg it will absolutely prevent felons. One teaspoonful of salt in a teaspoonful of cold water will at once relieve the pain from colic.

A cure for cholera morbus is one tablespoonful of salt and one teaspoonful of black pepper dissolved in a half tumblerful of water and a half tumblerful of vinegar, the dose being two teaspoonfuls until relieved.

A small sack loosely filled with salt and thoroughly warmed is good for rheumatism, as the salt adds its curative properties to the warmth. A peculiar use of it is to bind it dry upon the back of the neck, as this is said to be an unfailing cure for hives. Gargle your sore throat with it, eat a pinch of it to stop a cough and wet your head with salt water to eradicate dandruff and stimulate the growth of the hair.

NO MORE FLYING FOR ME, SAYS REID

Aviator Harkens to Mother's Plea to Stay on Ground.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Viewing the total wreck of his $6,000 hydroneroplane as it lay upon the beach at the inlet, Marshall Earle Reid, well known aviator, who for two years has furnished thrills at shore resorts and elsewhere, said:

"I am through with flying for good. I'll consider myself lucky in this tumble and call it square. If there is anything exciting in the game that I have not tried out in the two years of my career as an aviator I shall leave it for some one else to tackle. For me it is no more playing the bird man. I do not exactly regret having been in the business, for I have made $12,000."

"My mother has urged me time and again to stop flying. I think she knows better than I do myself that the money is not worth it. My other relatives have joined in pleading with me also. I guess I'll heed this call now."

"One thing I am thankful for, and this is that no human life has been laid as a sacrifice to my experiments in aviation. It was a close call, they tell me, but here I am, and mightily lucky, I think, to be here. Anyway, I'll take the tumble as a friendly hint to seek some other means of livelihood. So it's me for the dry and solid land hereafter."

Reid was reminded of his mother's desire that he should quit aviation by the loss of a ring that his mother gave him.

MRS. EATON'S TRIAL SET.

Must Face Jury Oct. 13 For Murder of Admiral.

Greenfield, Mass.—Chief Justice Aiken of the superior court has ordered that the trial of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph Gies Eaton, be held at Plymouth on Oct. 13. Mrs. Eaton was arrested twelve days after the admiral died from poisoning at their home in Assinippi, on March 8. With the exception of two brief appearances in court she has since been in jail at Plymouth.

Mrs. Eaton is accused of having placed poison in coffee and other food prepared for the admiral.

Minerva on College Education

MINERVA was putting the finishing touches on a golf sweater she was knitting, when Erasmus came along.

"With all your love of wisdom," he said, "I should think you would rather be at your books than at that."

"I mix book learning with a little other kind," replied Minerva, wondering if a touch of pale blue on the collar would be more becoming than pink. "That is the part of wisdom."

"How do you make that out?" asked Erasmus. "As for me, I could never get enough of the wisdom of books."

"The wisdom of books is all right, so far as it goes. But you want a little of the wisdom of human nature mixed with it, to make the most successful working combination. You were a great student. But you didn't do much but study. That was all right for your time. People weren't doing much in the study line just then, and there had to be somebody to show it off. But nowadays, everybody is studying. And if they all did it as exclusively as you did, there'd soon be a shut-down in everything but the think factories."

"That wouldn't be such a bad thing, would it? A world in which everybody was studying would be a pretty good sort of place, I think."

"A person can have too much education," replied Minerva. "That's the trouble with a good many college grads roaming around now and hunting a job. They've studied too exclusively. They know all the things inside of books, but nothing outside. And the two don't always fit. Lots of fellows who really want to amount to something, take a college course for the name of it, and then start at the bottom of some business and learn things. But not everybody is that sensible. A good many think they know it all when they come out. And that's a big mistake. That's the reason I say you want a mixture of book knowledge and other knowledge in order to get a brand of wisdom that will pass the pure food act. Now with all your studying, I don't believe you could manage a railroad, could you?"

"Well,—er,—not exactly," replied Erasmus, thinking how difficult it was even to make out a time-table.

"Or float a corporation?"

"Heavens, no!" Watering stock had never seemed to him worthy a man's attention.

"Or run a bank?"

He held up a protesting hand. Bank statements gave him a headache.

"How about running a store?"

"I don't care for trade. Besides, I shouldn't care to be investigated upon the subject of starvation wages."

"You see," said Minerva, "you have too much learning to really be of any use. And that's the way with a good many college graduates. They either lose all taste for real work, or else they can't find any good enough for them. A college course which would include a little manual labor such as stocking a steamship, and a study of human nature such as would be gained by clerking in a store, and a few other things of this sort, would prove such a well-balanced mental diet that the graduates would be ready to bite off most anything in the way of work. They'd have book knowledge and human, everyday knowledge, and they could mix the two in the proportions best suited to the job they located."

"Well, if that's what's needed today," said Erasmus. "I prefer my times to these."

"As I said," responded Minerva, deciding on blue for her collar, "you were needed in your time as a shining example of learning. You gave an impetus to study that was necessary. But nowadays, the people who do your stunt are often simply putting up a good bluff. Real work doesn't look good to them, and so they take post-graduate courses, and then go abroad and study, and then join special classes, and so on, until they are Oslerized for work. Then they draw a breath of relief and live on the reputation they have acquired for research. I tell you, it is wise to look both the college education and the boy over pretty carefully, before the two are hitched together."

SAYRE WILL TAKE PLACE AT COLLEGE

Prospective Son-in-Law of President Accepts Position.

New York.—Francis B. Sayre, who is to marry in November Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, second daughter of President Wilson, has decided to accept the place of assistant to President Harry A. Garfield of Williams college. He will begin his new work in February of next year. Mr. Sayre will not resign his place as head of the abandonment bureau in District Attorney Whitman's office until the latter part of November, just before his marriage to Miss Wilson. After the honeymoon trip Mr. Sayre and his bride will go to Williamstown, where they will make their home.

The place at Williams college which Mr. Sayre will take was offered to him nearly a year ago. The office is new and, according to Mr. Sayre, will be largely what he makes it. His duties for the first six months will be to assist President Garfield in the shaping of the administrative policy of the college. He will study social conditions among the students and will visit various cities to keep in touch with the alumni. He will also visit preparatory schools and interest prospective college students in Williams.

Mr. Sayre is a graduate of Williams of the class of 1909. His desire to serve his alma mater had great weight with him in his consideration of President Garfield's order. President Garfield was a member of the faculty of Princeton university when President Wilson was its head.

Forgot His Troubles.

As a rule, in later years we remember our pleasant experiences more easily than our troubles. I once visited a village where I found the oldest inhabitant, a frail old man, who regaled me for an hour with quaint and comical reminiscences of his youth. With each fresh anecdote his ready laugh broke out. It appeared as though his life had been one long comedy. "Did you never have any troubles?" I asked. "Why, yes, to be sure," said the patriarch, "but I've forgotten all they. 'cept there was anything funny about 'em."—London Standard.

GIVE BOND TO CARRY WEAPONS

Five special policemen have given bond of $1,000 to carry concealed weapons. According to the amendment regarding the carrying of weapons, it may be a penitentiary offense and is at least liable to a fine of $500 or more, to be found with pistols, knives or other dangerous weapons on the person.

Municipal police officers, sheriffs, constables and deputies regularly appointed are not required to give bond.
This law took effect August 1. Since that time five men have given bond to the clerk, Charles M. Laddick, Arthur
S. Gilmore, William A. Ford, James
M. Bennett and George J. Mercer.

RECEIVED

Bacon of the foreign relations committee if he would reveal the status of Hale.
"I decline to answer," replied
Senator Bacon.
"Declining to answer will not constitute to be satisfactory to the senate or to the people of the country," rejoined Senator Penrose.
"Hale," Mr. Penrose declared,
"had been active in Mexico City, conveying the impression that he is the representative of President Wilson, and had been in conference with Mr.
Lind since the envoy's arrival."
Senator Penrose added he had known Hale several years and that he left Ardmore, Penn., about three-teen years ago under circumstances which he need not "more than mention."
"The sooner Dr. Hale's connections are severed the better for the unfortunate Americans now in Mexico," he concluded. "The resolution calling for information went over until tomorrow."
Senator Lodge charged that the Democrats were trying to treat the Mexican question as a party affair.
His statement, made in bitter terms, followed a declaration by Senator
Bacon that "force means war."
"Everything is being done that can be done," Senator Bacon declared, "short of using actual force, and force means war, and war is not a thing to be rushed into hurriedly and rapidly, not to be encouraged by intemperate speech at this time."
Attempts by Democratic leaders to stop the Mexican discussion and turn the senate back to the tariff bill brought an outburst from Senator Lodge.
"I want to support the president in every possible way on this Mexican matter," he cried, addressing the Democrats. "He is not your president alone; he is the president of the American people as much mine as yours. But I want no partisanship

GREAT TIME
AT CHATHAM
HOME COMING

Thursday was a gala day at Chatham when 2,000 people returned to the little village to spend the day and renew acquaintances. The town was bedecked with bunting in red, white and blue and at 8:30 o'clock the visitors began to arrive.
Three bands furnished music for the occasion and a parade was formed at noon of the bands, members of the baseball teams, various church organizations, the Old Guards of Newark and a number of fantastic vehicles. A feature of the parade was an old prairie schooner owned by the Marple family.
In the afternoon a band concert was given and two games of baseball were played. The Union Cubs played the Louisville team and next the Union team crossed bats with a team from Highwater.
The dinner at noon was served at a common table. A long table was placed the length of the principal street, and the contents of all the baskets were placed on the table.
The evening was given over to a camp fire, around which gathered the old residents and reminiscences were indulged in. A number of short talks were delivered, among them being one by Dr. L. C. Sparks of Newark.
Visitors came from all sections of the country, some of them being back for the first time in 25 years.

ACTS VALID

Court Sustains Acts of Lieutenant Governor Who Was Acting as Governor During Latter's Vacation.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Aug. 15.—A decision of the criminal court of appeals, settled yesterday as valid, a pardon granted to George Crump by Lieut. Governor McAlester, who recently acted as governor for 24 hours during the absence of Governor Lee Cruce.
Crump's attorney instituted habeas corpus proceedings when prison officials refused to honor the pardon granted by McAlester. The court, in its decision today, ordered that Crump be given his liberty.
McAlester, while acting governor, issued pardons to three others besides Crump and also signed school book contracts involving an expenditure of more than $1,000,000 which acts caused Governor Cruce to cut short his vacation and hasten back to Oklahoma City. Supporters of the Lieutenant Governor contend that the decision of criminal court of appeals in effect, establishes the legality of all his executive acts.

NO SMOKING
ON LAUNCHES
AT BUCKEYE

Superintendent Miller, of the board of public works, is taking every precaution to see that lives of those who travel on launches at Buckeye Lake are not endangered. Every effort is being made to prevent any more serious accidents. Thursday, a new rule came into effect, that there would be no smoking on the boats. This habit is very hazardous, because of the lighting of matches about the machinery. Employees had considerable trouble yesterday in enforcing the rule, for smokers were loathe to throw away a fresh cigar or cigarette after getting it fairly started. Signs will be posted on all the boats at once.

BUGGY WRECKED
BY AUTO IN DRY
CREEK BRIDGE

A buggy was demolished and the lives of a man, woman and child endangered Thursday evening by a collision with an automobile near the Dry Creek bridge.
Robert Forgrave, township constable, was returning from the Chatham reunion and not knowing that an automobile was approaching, started to cross the bridge. There was not room on the bridge for the machine to pass safely and Forgrave called to the driver of the auto that he would turn aside when he had crossed the bridge. The danger of a horse shying and going over the edge makes a bridge of that kind very unsafe for passing an automobile. The owner of the machine, who was driving, came on at considerable speed and the buggy was wrecked and Forgrave, wife and child, narrowly escaped serious injury.
The driver of the machine is a Newark man and as he drove without stopping to see whether the parties had been injured, he told Mr. Forgrave his name. Several bystanders seized stones and threatened to attack the auto, but Forgrave quieted them. He looked up the number of the machine Friday morning and it corresponds to the name given by the driver. Both parties are threatening to enter suit, the one because he was not given half of the road, the other because his buggy was torn up.
